CHALET ROCK (SLEEPS 10) – VERBIER

Chalet Rock is a newly built stone and timber chalet, hidden away down a private driveway in a quiet corner of Verbier, a mere 3-minute chauffeured drive from the ski lifts. Uninterrupted views towards the Mont Blanc massif can be soaked up from the outdoor hot tub or one of the chalet's expansive terraces. Completed in 2012, Chalet Rock has been lovingly designed throughout in a modern contemporary style. Thanks to its state-of-the-art wood pellet and solar-powered heating and ventilation systems, the chalet is not only beautifully warm and cosy, but environmentally-friendly too.

Spread over three floors, Chalet Rock has five bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms. The master bedroom is gorgeous, with amazing views and a spacious modern bathroom, finished in stylish polished concrete. The chalet's double-height living room is full of light and its floor-to-ceiling panoramic French windows open onto a large south-facing balcony with sun loungers and giant bean bags.

Downstairs, Chalet Rock boasts a superb cinema room, as well as a second living room with TV, games consoles and a pool table. The chalet comes with Sky TV, wifi internet access and garage parking. Children with energy to burn will be kept busy sledging and building snow dens in the large open meadow in front of the chalet. For those who like their seclusion, Chalet Rock is the perfect mountain bolt-hole.
